Symposium 18 instructions for access, and format and operation

The access to symposium 18 is

- On a first-come first-serve basis (max. number of participants: 250)

Symposium 18 will run as an online symposium with the invited speakers, student/postdoc presentations and blocks of 2 min poster introductions to selected posters. The invited and student/postdoc talks are live presentations only available at the times in the program. The poster talks are pre-recorded and available during the entire meeting. Both the talks and the poster introductions will be followed by live discussion sessions.

The video platform of symposium 18 is gotomeeting (www.gotomeeting.com). Please download and use the client if possible. When you click on the link to join the meeting, you will also be given the opportunity to download the client. You may join 10 min in advance of the sessions to familiarize yourself with gotomeeting. Additional instructions/help are shown as a slideshow before the start of the program. You may also send a (private) message in gotomeeting to "S18_HelpDesk" before or during the program. Please turn off your microphone and webcam unless instructred otherwise by the session chairs.

If you like to tweet about the symposium, please use the hashtag #ISE_S18. We will show the tweets during the virtual coffee breaks and include some tweets from the official hashtag of the annual meeting #ISEBelgradeOnline.
